

SUKHWINDER (SUE) BAJWA, ESQ

EDUCATION

McGeorge School of Law, University of the Pacific 1989-1992
Juris Doctorate
Legislative Review Staff, Pacific Law Journal
Assistant Editor, Pacific International Law Journal

University of the Pacific 1985-1989
Bachelor of Arts in Journalism and Pre-law (with Honors)

STATE BAR ADMISSIONS

Admitted to California State Bar December 1992

Admitted to Washington State Bar January 1995
License currently inactive

LEGAL EXPERIENCE

Galloway, Lucchese, Everson & Picchi, Pleasant Hill, CA 2001 – Present
Medical malpractice defense firm representing physicians, hospitals, and health care facilities. Responsible for all aspects of managing litigated cases from discovery, including written discovery, depositions of parties, treating physicians and experts. Draft and argue pretrial motions, including demurrers, motions for summary judgment, discovery motions and motions in limine. Evaluate defensibility of and make recommendations regarding settlement and trial strategy.

Resick, Hansen & Follis, Bellingham, Washington 1995 – 1999
Small general civil practice firm representing parties in personal injury, real estate and business litigation; established the firm's family law practice

California State Board of Equalization, Sacramento, CA 1993-1994
Sales and Use Tax Division- research and write opinions relating to tax ramifications of large sales transactions

San Joaquin County District Attorney's Office, Stockton, CA 1992-1993
Assigned to Misdemeanor Crimes Unit. Responsible for prosecution of misdemeanor cases including arraignments, negotiation of plea bargains and jury trials.

MEMBERSHIPS

Association of Defense Counsel
Contra Costa County Bar Association
South Asian Bar Association